

Mark on the diagram each needle position with the key off.

Remove the kick plate as shown.

Remove the screws shown here.

Remove the screws shown here as well.

Remove the keyhole cover as shown here.

Remove the shroud from around the cluster and unplug this plug.

Remove the 4 screws holding the cluster in.

Unplug the cluster from the car.

Take the cluster to a flat surface to work.

Remove the screws holding the lens on and remove the lens.

Remove the needles with the tool provided as shown.

Pull the old gauge face off of the cluster.

Remove the plastic backing on the new face and place the face onto the cluster.

Take the cluster back to the car, plug it in, and with the key off, place the needles where they are marked on diagram.

Unplug the cluster and check needle height with tool provided as shown.

If everything looks good, install lens and reinstall in car.

